

Japan-U.S. Exchange Debate 2017

日米交歓ディベート

Tuesday, June 13th, Ito Center Zone

Mr. Elijah Smith
Wake Forest University

Ms. Allison Foust
Regis University

Dr. John M. Kephart III
California State University

Talk & Discussion:

13:30-14:30. SCS-FLC Building 321

“Changing trends in US academic debate: Reaching minority communities”

by Dr. John M. Kephart III, Associate Professor of Communication Studies and Director of Forensics
California State University, Northridge

Policy Debate (HENDA High School Style)

17:00-18:00. Classroom 2107

Resolved: That Japan should significantly relax its immigration policies.

Parliamentary Debate (Asian Style):

18:30-20:00. Classroom 2107

Topic: To be announced.

Split Teams (ESS and US Team members)

Please make a reservation for another debate:

10:30-12:00. Building 1 Room 1403

Resolved: That US law enforcement agencies (such as the FBI) should have the right to force technology companies
(such as Apple) to provide backdoor access.

Demo Policy Debate with International Students

Contact: Kyushu Debate Education, FLC, Kyushu U.
debate@flc.kyushu-u.ac.jp or 092-802-5747

Japan-U.S. Exchange Debate at Kyushu University is sponsored by the JDA Kyushu Chapter, Kyushu University Faculty of Languages & Cultures, and Kyushu University ESS. The program is partially supported by KAKENHI (26282054). (See <http://flc.kyushu-u.ac.jp/~debate/> for updates.)

The Japan-U.S. Exchange Debate Japan Tour 2017 (June 6-27) is hosted by the Japan Debate Association (JDA), with a special support of GTEC, in cooperation with the National Communication Association, Committee on International Discussion and Debate (NCA-CIDD) and All Japan High School English Debate Association (HENDA). (See <https://www.facebook.com/japan.debate/> for the updated tour information.)